The indemnifying Party shall have the right to control the defense and settlement of any such claim, provided that no settlement that imposes any obligation or liability on the indemnified Party shall be entered into without the indemnified Party's prior written consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld).

10. GENERAL PROVISIONS

This Agreement, together with its Exhibits, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations, and communications, whether written or oral, including without limitation the Prior Agreement dated May 3, 2026, which is hereby superseded in its entirety.

This Agreement may be amended, modified, or waived only by a written instrument signed by both Parties. No waiver of any provision shall be deemed a continuing waiver or a waiver of any other provision.

10.3 Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect. The Parties shall negotiate in good faith to replace any invalid provision with a valid provision that most closely approximates the original intent.

10.4 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of laws principles. The Parties expressly select Delaware law in recognition of the Assignee's state of formation.

10.5 Jurisdiction and Venue

Any disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts located in the State of Delaware. Each Party irrevocably consents to the personal jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection based on venue, forum non conveniens, or similar grounds.

Before initiating any legal proceeding, the Parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute through direct negotiation for a period of thirty (30) days. If the dispute remains unresolved, the Parties may proceed to mediation, arbitration, or litigation as agreed in writing, or as otherwise permitted by this Agreement.

10.7 Assignment by the Parties

The Assignee may assign this Agreement and its rights hereunder, in whole or in part, to any successor entity, acquirer, or affiliate without the Assignor's consent. Any attempted assignment in violation of this Section 10.7 shall be null and void.

10.8 Binding Effect

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and permitted assigns.

10.9 Counterparts and Electronic Signatures

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Signatures transmitted by facsimile, email, or electronic signature platform (e.g., DocuSign) shall be deemed originals for all purposes.

10.11 No Waiver

No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right or remedy under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy shall preclude any other or further exercise of any right or remedy.

10.12 Survival

The provisions of Sections 2 (Assignment), 4 (Representations and Warranties), 7 (Confidentiality), 8 (Residual Knowledge and Non-Competition), 9 (Indemnification), and 10 (General Provisions) shall survive the termination, expiration, or supersession of this Agreement.
